RECREATION

REC BRIEFS

Carlville has benefit today for Ridley

CARLINVILLE - There will be a benefit 5K race today at Carlville. The event, which starts at 3 p.m., will feature competition in various age groups.

Proceeds go toward Olympic Trials funding for former Carlville High athlete Tunde Ridley, a 1996 graduate and four-time IHSA Class A track champion that year.

Entry forms are available at the Springfield Running Center. Or call Dave Jokisch at (217) 415-3458. Jokisch was Ridley's coach when Carlville won the 1996 state track championship.

Chili golf benefit set at Wolves Crossing

JERSEYVILLE - A benefit golf tournament for Barry Tonsor will be held on Sunday, Nov. 4 at the Wolves Crossing Course in Jerseyville. Tonsor lost his house and personal belongings in a fire on Sept. 30.

"We would like to help and support him in replenishing what he has lost," family members said. "So all proceeds from this outing will go toward the Barry Tonsor Fire Relief Fund."

The golf event will be a four-person scramble and have an 11 a.m. shotgun start. Cost is $50 per person or $200 a team.

For more information, contact Brad Tonsor at 406-0824 or Mark Marcuzzo at The Woodlands. His phone number is 462-1456.

Youths can register for softball, baseball

ALTON - Individuals can sign up for Alton Junior

Softball and Baseball. The Alton Recreation Department is holding early-bird registration Dec. 3 through Feb. 1. Cost is $25 (residents) and $35 for youngsters in T-Ball. It's $35 (residents) and $45 for those in grades 1-9.

Regular registration runs Feb. 4 through March 7. Late registration is March 10.

Call 463-3580 for more information.

Retired Southwestern Illinois groups to meet

O'FALLON - The retired IHSA coaches and officials will hold their annual luncheon on Tuesday, Nov. 13 at Schippa's in O'Fallon. Bill Lee, commissioner of the Class A independent Frontier League, will be the featured speaker.

Cost is $11 for the buffet lunch. Please RSVP by Nov. 11.

Call Dick Condrey at 659-2025 or Otto Daech at 345-6792 for more information.

Southwestern A's to hold baseball tryout

BRIGHTON - The Southwestern A's 11-and-under baseball team will hold a tryout on Saturday, Nov. 3 at Schneider Park in Brighton. The tryout is scheduled for 2 p.m.

USSSA rules apply. Players who are 12 years old before May 1, 2008 aren't eligible to try out for the team.

A parent or guardian must be present during the tryout. Call Jeff Roberts at 372-3488 or Jeff Vinyard at 372-4336 for more information.

Annual golf scramble set at Wadlow Course

ALTON - The fifth annual One-Man golf scramble will run Friday, Nov. 23, at the Wadlow Course. It will begin with a shotgun start at 9:30 that morning.

Cost to register is $35 for 18 holes. The entry deadline is Nov. 21.

Call 463-3580, 463-2580, 465-9898 or 465-9861 for more information.

Individuals can sign up for basketball

ALTON - The Alton Recreation Department is accepting registration for its 2007-08 youth basketball program.

There's a basic skills clinic for boys in grades 1-2 and a recreation league for boys and girls in grades 3-5.

The skill competition starts Dec. 1, as does the recreation league. The deadline to register is Nov. 20.

For fees or further information, call 463-3580.

Harris-Stowe offers baseball program

ST. LOUIS - Harris-Stowe University in St. Louis is having a six-week spring training baseball program for players in grades 1-12. It'll run from Dec. 2 through Jan. 20.

Head coach Jonathan Estes will conduct the program. Cost is $99 per person. Call (866) MBA-HITS.

Belleville East to have spring baseball event

BELLEVILLE - A six-week spring training baseball program will run by Belleville East High coaches from Jan. 6 through Feb. 24. Players in grades 1-12 can participate. Cost is $99. Call Lancers' coach Todd Blomberg at 866-MBA-HITS for more information.
